

Should your child wear a face mask in public?

Age
0-2

NO

You can protect infants by carrying them in a car seat with a breathable cover, or pushing them in their stroller with the cover on.

Age
2+

YES

They can wear a cloth face mask as long as they are able to remove the mask if they have trouble breathing.

Source: CDC